The Soul and the Skin

January 18 – February 15, 2025

*Sing praises to earth's creatures who have endured millions of deaths.
To the real gods who roam this land creating music from breaths.
It is our affairs that ignite fires of beauty from hand,
May we withdraw for a time to let them heal this land.*

*It is the purity of flesh and the warmth of fur,
Or an unusual offering causing the soul to stir.
The bone, the antler, the lungs and the teeth,
Form a gentle maiden and a death of a thief.*

*Lost magic created by ages of innocence,
Sculpts a thick atmosphere of lust and omnipotence.
Let their love help me create the work in which I try,
From the soul and the skin to whisper a faint goodbye.*

—Miles Cleveland Goodwin

Valley House Gallery is pleased to present our sixth solo exhibition of paintings by Miles Cleveland Goodwin. Born in Biloxi, Mississippi, he spent his youth in the South, and currently lives in Georgia. His work was exhibited recently at Anima Mundi Gallery in England. Two paintings have been added to the permanent collection of the Ogden Museum of Southern Art in New Orleans: Lucifer and Prisoner of War, and his painting Resurrection from 2016, is in the permanent collection of The Grace Museum in Abilene.

The essay A Southern Howl: Thoughts on Miles Cleveland Goodwin by Bradley Sumrall, Curator of the Collection at the Ogden Museum of Southern Art, New Orleans, will be included in the exhibition catalogue.

Opening Reception: Saturday, January 18, 5:00pm - 7:00pm
